About This Content

Challenge yourself with four new scenarios, designed by top OTC competitor “Blues” to test your ability turn a profit in less than ideal conditions. To top these trials, you’ll have to handle resource lockouts, staggering debt, and even depend on your trusty MULEs instead of mines to build the foundation of your Martian corporation. Keep a thoughtful approach and your quick wits about you and despite the odds being stacked in your competition’s favor you’ll be able to prove yourself against the finest Mars can offer.

The Scenario Toolkit also includes 41 new maps (33 on Mars, 8 on Ceres) to Offworld Trading Company. Available for both Skirmish and Multiplayer game modes, these are a great way to enjoy OTC in structured Martian environments.

Features:

- New Scenarios - Blues brings more content into Offworld, creating four unique puzzles for players to test their abilities

in all new ways

- New Maps - Enjoy many new maps, based on real Martian locations, perfect for getting started with editing your own
- New Campaign Locations - Explore the new maps that work with the “real Mars maps” option, now incorporated into the campaign
- Example Mods - Aspiring Offworld Modders can access the included examples to serve as a foundation for their own creations you have a robot mech that goes "badabadabing, badabadaboom, badabada" it is also pretty weird and wacky and spooky, and a bit boring, but that's ok

It's pretty nice, and its cool to watch, but not very fun to play, approach carefully, unless you like this sort of thing (you should).
CONSTRUCT ADDITIONAL PYLONS.

Yeah, this is a game you can win by zerg rushing every time.

A half-decent mobile game badly ported to PC, as aggravating as enjoyable, with cutesy graphics and a completely dead multiplayer. (Sucks that 4 of its 11 achievements are based on winning multiplayer matches, though it only takes one for 2 of them.) Some problems are the port, but some are just built in.

The only way this game could be more casual is being pay-to-win (no freemium, yay), with its bright cheery graphics, easy money, and small levels that only take a dozen rounds each with little strategy. Although the day/night cycle SHOULD offer a game-changing twist, the water/ice is just an occasional convenience, and almost every single-player level can be easily won by zerg rushing the enemy. The AI isn't very strong, and the first player has an almost insurmountable advantage thanks to the order battles occur. There's zero randomness, zero specials, and once you know the units you can quickly min-max the game and win everything. A 4X player will find almost no depth here.

And yet I think it's kind of cool. It gives some random casual iPhone-like entertainment in between meatier games, and making tons of units and wiping out everything can be surprisingly cathartic. I just wouldn't pay much for it.

I wish it had been fully made for the PC, because so many things require you to sweep your mouse from one end of the screen and back just to give orders. It's ok for a touchscreen, though it'd still have some issues there, but a pain in theu2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665with a mouse. Aside from that, having no way to cancel an accidental order is annoying, the music sometimes skips, and the text and animations are interminable. No option menu at all.

Wait for a sale and give it a go. It's no Highborn, but it might amuse you.. It is a good game to play every once and a while. The gameplay is not that exiting but enjoyable. A good pick.. Quite simply, the narration in this game deserves an award all on it's own. Really a lot of fun, even thou I am not good enough to finish level one! I really hope that there will be more games like this that try to bring the good old shootemups to VR!

Pro

Graphics are really nice

Steering is exact (can you say so?)

Con

For me it is a little bit difficult, even on "easy"

Recommend it? Absolutely for anybody that loves games like R-Type and would love to play that in VR!. Redneck rampage is an old school 3d action doom-like game with original atmosphere,places and exceptional difficulty and i like it a lot, but the worst disadvantage is its enormous difficulty of enemies and even some levels which decreases the overall fun.

Rating: 80%

Doesnt load. I even left it loading for a hour, some things loaded, vision was tunned and broken up to much to interact. I have windows mixed reality. It said it would work for that but it acts like other programs that are just for VR. Whatever the reason it doesnt work. I guess I cant get a refund?

. Game is♥♥♥♥♥ Even for around $2, this game isn't worth it. I know its new, but it has lots of glitches and bugs and barely anyone plays this game. This game needs more fixing. 3/10. This game is pretty great for when you only have a few minutes to play. It's kind of challenging and the weapons are all pretty neat.. Trading Card Farming Simulator 2016. best animation program I've tried so far. Very user friendly and has a nice IK character model that's easy to animate.. Very fun game
